

No. Torrance No. High

The last meeting for this year of the North Torrance Elementary PTA was held at the school on the evening of May 16. Following the opening flag salute, led by Girl Scouts of Troop 457, the business meeting was presided over by Mrs. Robert Payne.

The principal announcement concerned the eighth grade graduation to be held June 13 at the school. Refreshments will be served after the ceremony and there will be a party for graduates in the evening.

Spring round-up time for registration of kindergarten pupils for next year was held at the school on May 22 and 23 and June 7. The school nurse is to represent the school at the annual Torrance Mental Health Assn. dinner.

A report on the state PTA convention at Sacramento was given by Mrs. Robert Payne.

Installed as officers of the PTA for the coming year were president, Mrs. R. Payne; 1st vice president, Mrs. B. Peters; 2nd vice president, Mrs. C. Danmarsh; 3rd vice president, Mrs. L. Graham; 4th vice president, Mrs. J. Ashley, recording secretary, Mrs. T. Rogers; corresponding secretary, Mrs. N. Boy; treasurer, Mrs. B. Cook; auditor, Mrs. J. Bugando; historian, Mrs. T. Kughen and parliamentarian, Mrs. C. Sewell. Conducting the installation ceremony was Mrs. Francis Stoeckle, president of the Torrance Council PTA.

The May meeting of the North High PTA was held in the library of the school, Tuesday, May 22, at 8 p.m.

Mrs. A. B. Cowie, president, introduced the guests of the evening, Mrs. Lila Hummel, honorary life membership chairman of 33rd District and Mrs. Roland Stamm, president-elect of Evelyn Carr PTA.

Mrs. Ardell Teague announced that the brunch and white elephant auction, put on by the PTA was successful and thanked the members who helped her on the many projects this year.

Mrs. J. R. Sanders reported on the state convention held in Sacramento and Mrs. Earl Welliver, historian, gave the history of our PTA telling the highlights of our work and accomplishments this year.

Mrs. Joe Begando presented Mrs. Cowie with a past president's pin in the name of the PTA.

259th Place

"Teamwork Makes Us Healthy" was the theme of Thursday's meeting of the 259th Place School PTA, held at 1 p.m. in the school auditorium. The refreshment period was held at 12:30 to 1 p.m. The speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. Ruth Walker, school psychologist for the South District Offices. Mrs. Walker is a school counselor for the elementary grades and has worked with the San Pedro Mental Health Clinic. She spoke on Mental Health as it applies to the elementary school child.

The May board meeting was held at 259th Place School in bungalow 24 last Thursday morning. Mrs. Gertrude Nordgren's resignation as third vice president was accepted as she is transferring to another school system.

It was voted to give money to the Narbonne all-night graduating party, and to a luncheon for the 48 graduation classes from 259th Place School. The board voted to give two Honorary Life Memberships this June.

Heading the program for the May PTA meeting was Mrs. Ruth Walker, school psychologist for the south district offices. She discussed mental health problems on the elementary level. Mrs. Ruth Walker said, "Emotional maladjustment may be brought about by many factors. Some of the basic needs of all of us are love, achievement, recognition, belonging, no fear or guilt, self-respect and understanding of the world in which we live."

Mrs. William Shier, president-elect of Lomita-San Pedro Council PTA, read the inspirational message.

By-laws and standing rules were approved by the charter members after the reading by Mrs. H. F. Kinnear, 10th District parliamentarian.

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Danky, principal of the new school, welcomed the group and after a few introductory words submitted the list of officer nominees who were unanimously accepted by the 107 charter members, 100 per cent teacher members.

They are Meses, David P. Goolsby, president; Francis Annania, first vice president; Donald King, second vice president; Robert Bree, recording secretary; Wallace Meley, corresponding secretary; Paul Kelso, treasurer; Donald F. Guild, historian; Amado B. Tapia, parliamentarian; Howard Salveter, auditor.

It was decided to hold an A-6 party to be paid for jointly by the association and student body. Mrs. Floyd Phillips was appointed chairman of the proposed party.

Mrs. Winston Clare, third vice president of Tenth District PTA, held a conference for all Harbor Area PTA membership chairmen of Gardena, Wilmington Council, Lomita-San Pedro Elementary Council, and Gateway Council. The meeting was held Thursday, May 24, at the Homer Toberman Settlement in San Pedro.

Representatives from Gateway were Meses, Eric Heinman, Harbor regional director; D. W. Ten Eyck, council president; A. C. Akerson, president elect; Peter Costa Jr., council membership chairman; Carl Brooks, Arnold Reiman, Joseph Ward, and Roland Puette, Banning High; Ben Scott, Dana Jr. High; D. G. Cheek, Narbonne High; Thurman Raig and Leonard Stagnara, San Pedro High; Robert Straughn and Walter Vollmer, Gardena High; Claude Montgomery, Wilmington Jr. High.

Mrs. C. N. Peterson, first vice president of Gardena-Wilmington Council, installed officers of the 186th Street PTA during the regular meeting in May of that organization. Skiing was the theme used and each officer and Miss Ruth Engdahl, principal, received miniature skis with their names on them. Officers installed were Meses, Herman Eisenbeiss, president; Guy Cels, first vice president; Floyd Beech, second vice president; Walter Stewart, secretary; William Turrentine, treasurer; Curtis Earles, auditor; Hugh Allan, historian. As a gesture of appreciation for the support of the board members during the preceding year Mrs. Herman Eisenbeiss presented the association with two coffee servers and warmers.
